Is it possible to join or leave midway through the trip?	Yes, that’s fine. Please note that the full participation fee still applies, even if you join late or leave early.
Can I skip the Trek and join just a few events?	Unfortunately, no. To keep things fair for everyone, you'll need to pay the full Trek fee even if you only attend some of the events.
Are seats on the Shinkansen (Bullet train) assigned? Can I choose my own seat?	We have booked a block of seats for the group, so you cannot select a specific seat in advance. Please take any available seat within our reserved block when you board. We may split the group across two Shinkansen trains.
Are there events such as Bar or Club outings planned during the trip?	Official parties are planned for Day 2 (Mar 21, Kyoto), Day 4 (Mar 23, Hiroshima), and Day 7 (Mar 26, Tokyo). In previous years, participants voluntarily gathered for bar or club outings in addition to the official parties.
Is participation in all events mandatory? Can I act separately?	We generally encourage you to participate in all scheduled activities. If you choose to make separate plans, fees for any activities you skip will not be waived. You do so at your own risk.
How much free time will there be?	Day 1 (Arrival day / Kyoto), Day 3 (Kyoto / Full day), Day 6 (Tokyo / Full day), Day 7 (Tokyo / Morning to evening), Day 8 (Tokyo / Departure day)
What optional tours are available?	We are considering several optional tours in Kyoto (Day 3) and Tokyo (Days 6–7) . Details will be announced once finalized.
When do final exams end, and when does the spring quarter start?	For FTMBA, core final exams run through March 18, and spring quarter instruction begins on March 29.
Are there any recommended flights or arrival/departure times?	Since FTMBA core finals run through Thursday, March 18, we recommend leaving LAX on March 18 or 19 and arriving in Kyoto on Saturday, March 20. For the return trip, you can fly out of Japan on Saturday, March 27. Depending on your class schedule, you may be able to stay longer. Be careful with flights leaving LA on the afternoon of March 19, as the time difference could make your arrival too late.

What is the best way to get from LA to Kyoto?	Kansai International Airport (KIX) is the closest major international airport to Kyoto. From KIX, you can take a train or bus to Kyoto. If you can't find a suitable flight to KIX, you can fly into Tokyo (Haneda/HND or Narita/NRT) and take a domestic flight to Osaka's Itami Airport (ITM), or travel to Shinagawa and take the Shinkansen (bullet train) to Kyoto. ZIPAIR, a low-cost airline owned by Japan Airlines that flies between LAX and NRT, may be the cheapest option.
Should I book my flight now?	Your spot is only confirmed once applications open at the Info Session and you've paid the deposit. We recommend booking your flight after that. If you're comfortable with the risk of ending up on the waitlist, you're welcome to book earlier.
What time does the Trek start on March 21?	There are no scheduled events that day. You'll just need to arrive in Japan and check into the hotel, and the rest of the day is yours.
Can I join on the morning of March 22?	Our chartered bus will leave the hotel at 9:30 AM, so we recommend checking in the day before.
What time does the Trek end on March 27?	There are no scheduled activities that day. You'll just check out of the hotel, so you can leave whenever works for you.
How much should I budget for additional expenses?	Around $500 should cover basic meals and transportation between Kyoto and Osaka.
What is the approximate flight cost?	As of Oct 11, connecting flights: $1,000~. Direct flights: $1,100~.
What is not included in the participation fee?	Airfare, optional insurance,and personal meals are not included. The participation fee includes lodging, local transportation, sightseeing visits, and official party expenses.
Can students other than first-year full-time MBAs join?	The Trek is open to all Anderson students! We have a good number of 2nd years and students other than FTMBA join us every year.
Can I bring my significant other?	Each MBA student may register one Significant Other. The participation cost is the same as for MBA students.

How many significant others can I bring?	If there's still spots after the deadline, we may be able to accommodate additional guests, so please contact us if you'd like to bring more than one.
Can I bring a friend who is not affiliated with Anderson, or an alum?	Unfortunately, no. The Trek is not open to guests outside Anderson or to alumni.
Can I request a single room or a two-person room?	The base fee includes two-person rooms in Kyoto and Tokyo, and Japanese-style rooms shared by 4–5 people in Hiroshima. You can also request a two-person room in Hiroshima or a single room for an additional fee, subject to availability.
Can I add the single-room or Hiroshima two-person room option after the deadline?	After the December 4 deadline, we'll need to check with the hotel before confirming your request. The price may also be higher.
Can I choose my roommate?	You'll share a room with your significant other if they're joining. For other room assignments, we'll ask for your preferences and do our best to match you with your preferred roommates. We'll finalize the details around February.
Should I start looking for a roommate?	If you choose the optional two-person room in Hiroshima, please list your roommate on your application. For the standard room arrangements (five-person rooms in Hiroshima and two-person rooms elsewhere), we'll ask for your roommate preferences around February. If you have specific people you'd like to share with, feel free to start making plans now, but you don't need to let the organizers know yet.
Are smoking rooms available?	All rooms will be non-smoking.
Is breakfast included?	Breakfast is included only on Day 5 in Hiroshima.
Is there anything I should keep in mind when using the onsen?	Guests with tattoos are officially not allowed to use the baths. In practice, though, we don't expect this to be an issue as long as you avoid disturbing other guests, such as by being noisy. If you're concerned, it's best to cover your tattoos with stickers or similar coverings. We plan to reserve the hotel onsen in Hiroshima for our group, so tattoos won't be an issue there.
Can you accommodate vegan diets and food allergies?	We expect to be able to accommodate dietary needs for meals included in the Trek, with meat-free, seafood-free, and vegan options. You'll be able to list your dietary requirements in the application.

Will halal meals be available?	We can arrange options such as meals without meat, but we haven't confirmed whether the meals are halal-certified. Please contact the organizing team if you need halal meals.
Do you have any restaurant recommendations?	We plan to share recommendations for nearby restaurants where you can eat during your free time. We'll send these out by the start of the Trek.
What are the rules regarding drinking alcohol and smoking?	Drinking alcohol in public places such as streets or parks is prohibited. Please drink only in restaurants or designated venues. Smoking is prohibited both indoors and outdoors in Japan except in designated “Smoking Areas.”
What happens if the number of applicants exceeds capacity?	We generally accept participants on a first-come, first-served basis, up to 80 people. Once all spots are filled, additional applicants will be placed on a waitlist. We’ll do our best to secure additional rooms with the hotels, so please bear with us in the meantime.
Is it possible to transfer or sell participation rights?	You can transfer or sell tickets through the system until [February 12]. Please check the information sent after registration for details.
Are there luggage restrictions?	There is no limit on the amount of luggage you can bring. We expect a luggage delivery service to be available from Kyoto to Tokyo on Day 4. Bringing illegal drugs, including cannabis, into Japan is strictly prohibited.
Which credit card brands are accepted?	We recommend bringing a Visa or Mastercard credit card. Note that some restaurants may only accept cash.
What kind of clothing is appropriate?	Temperatures: Tokyo 41–57°F (Ave. 50°F), Kyoto 40–57°F (Ave. 49°F), Hiroshima 41–58°F (Ave. 49°F). Suggested clothing: Shirt + sweater + light coat, or sweatshirt + jacket.
Do I need a local SIM card or mobile data plan?	Since there will be plenty of free time, we recommend purchasing a traveler-friendly eSIM plan.
How much cash should I bring?	Most places accept credit cards, so having around ¥10,000 (approximately USD 60) in cash should be sufficient.
